EMILY'S WINE CLUB SELECTIONS FOR SEPTEMBER

Nastl Riesling 2017 Langenlois, Kamptal, Austria

A great example of Langenlois, with insane minerality and a dark, ripe, stony texture. The color is a bright yellow-gold, very clear and clean. Tight and bright, with lemon and other citrus in a fleshy, almost chewy way. But the finish is intense with wet slate, stones, and huge acid. Try it with mushrooms, fried food, or buttery seafood for a real treat.

$19.99

Castel Sole Rosso Piceno 2015 Marche, Italy

50% Montepulciano, 50% Sangiovese

A smooth, earthy, mushroomy wine with notes of oak and cedar. Red plums and smoke are pleasant and easy to drink. It works wonders over the course of a couple days and is good on its own or with a multitude of foods, including pizza and pasta carbonara (even creamy pasta with shrimp). Looking for a quaffable Italian? Search no further.

$17.99

Yllera Nuevemeses Red 2020 Castilla Y Leon, Spain

91% Tempranillo with Cabernet, Syrah, and Merlot

This 6th generation family farm is focused on sustainable, organic agriculture. It's a big, dark and smoky wine with dark berries and briary notes. Black cherry, mulberry, and raspberry are long, medium-bodied, and round. The finish has vanilla, oak, and toast. Try it with a nice steak, grilled veggies, or a rich stew.

$13.99

This Month's Feature:

Hermitage de Combas Syrah 2007

Vin de Pays de Cotes de Thongue, France

It's got more a Northern Rhone feel to it, with a stony yet briary aroma. It's nice and earthy, with a classic Syrah underbrush tone to it, along with blackberry and black currant. Sage, bacon, and eggplant notes lie under the dark, dark fruit. Fennel seed and spicy peppercorn are on the finish. Lots of sediment is here... decant! Great with game birds, aged cheeses (especially with goat milk), and elegant cuts of beef.

Rosé of the month

Caravinsérail Elicio Rose 2021 Southern Rhone Valley, France 80% Grenache, 20% Syrah

Bright neon pink, it is juicy and full of fresh raspberry and tropical fruit. Ripe berries are enhanced by tons of flowers and a nice tart finish. Finish summer with a reminder that rose season can be all year long! Put it with charcuterie plates and noodle dishes. I love it with anything Asian in flair.

$14.99

Rose Club deal of the month = $9.99!

Wine Club Cru Level RED!

Parparoussis Oenofilos 2019 Peleponnese, Greece

Agorgitiko and Mavrodaphne

This wine is perfectly elegant, with its massive flavors of blueberry and earth balanced with the delicate notes of watermelon and strawberry. I rarely comment on legs but the wine has massive grip for how pretty it tastes. Silt and dried fruit have the dustiest lightest tannin. Drinks well above its price too. Roast vegetables, poultry, beef, and especially lamb are ideal.

$34.99

Cru Red deal of the month = $19.99!

Wine Club Cru Level WHITE!

Concrete Cuvee Les Enfants Terribles 2020 Clarksburg, Central Valley, CA

100% Chenin Blanc

Natural yeasts, concrete egg ferment, and lees ageing are a tribute to the Loire Valley's fresh, textured wines. This beauty has friendly notes of apricots, pears, apples, and quince, but the austere finish is lively and tart with bright acid. A natural with all poultry, fresh vegetables from the garden, or lightly sauced seafood.

$24.99

Cru White deal of the month = $14.99!
